HÆC EST DOMUS DOMINI FIRMITER EDIFICATA
ET IPSE FUNDAVIT EAM ALTISSIMUS

A photograph of a church door. The door is made of dark wood and has a decorative black metal handle with curved, ornate designs. A white sign is affixed to the door, containing text in Spanish. A reflection of the interior of the church is visible in the glass part of the door, showing a person in a dark vest and a white shirt, likely a priest, standing near a wooden altar or structure. The lighting is natural, coming from the left, creating highlights on the wood and metal.

Para Visitar la Iglesia, el señor

La iglesia es un lugar de oración, y en ella los fieles nos reunimos para rezar y celebrar
la memoria de nuestro Dios y Salvador.
